

The Homework Centre operates weekly Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday from 2:40 – 3:40pm except the last week of term.

Parents/carers choose the sessions in which their student will participate. Parents/carers may register for as many or few Homework Centre sessions for their student as they wish.

Please note: if you choose to register weekly, session may reach capacity. If sessions are unavailable, you will be informed by phone or email.

Parent declaration:

- I understand that teacher aides will not instruct my child or provide personalised tuition. Teacher aides will supervise my child during the session. My child will bring their homework or assignment work to each session.
- I confirm that if my child is booked to attend the Homework Centre but will not attend on a particular day, I will contact the school administration staff to advise of this as soon as possible.
- I confirm that I understand that I must be on time to collect my student from the front of the school at 3:40pm or have contacted the main office to inform the school if I am running late.
- I confirm that the above contact number is correct and that if my child has not arrived as scheduled for the Homework Centre, I will be contacted on these details about this unexplained absence, to protect the safety of my child.
